Attributes of Open Pedagogy

- Participatory Technologies: use for interacting via Web 2.0, social networks and mobile apps.
- People, Openness, Trust: develop trust, confidence and openness for working with others.
- Innovation & Creativity: encourage spontaneous innovation and creativity.
- Peer Review: contribute to open critique of others' scholarship.
- Reflective Practice: engage in opportunities for reflective practice.
- Learner Generated: facilitate learners' contribution to OER.
- Connected Community: participate in a connected community of professionals.
- Sharing Ideas & Resources: share ideas and resources freely to disseminate knowledge.

Credits: Adapted from Attributes of Open Pedagogy from Bronwyn Hegarty, licenced under CC BY 3.0.